THURSDAY FOLDER – NVA WEEKLY COMMUNICATION

It is legitimately September. Fall is coming; you can feel a bit of chill in the air. Don't forget the early mornings are a little chilly so students can start wearing another light layer.

Many teachers touch on the significance of September 11th in our American history today, and administration hosted "Burritos for Badges" to honor those that are 1st responders and active military. Burritos, coffee and juice were offered for free to any uniformed officer who came by school. Nice to nurture those positive community relationships. And, we are grateful.

We have added a contract nurse to our school family. Yay! Nancy Quintana will be with us one day per week to screen students, make sure all of our health files are in compliance, and to support us in our basic first aid, ice application and TLC that April and the rest of the front office staff attend to with so much care.

Basketball tryouts will continue this evening –

- 7&8 year olds at 6 pm
- 9&10 years olds at 7 pm

Just a reminder –

- Book Fair starts Monday, Sept 15
- Regular Governance Council, Thursday, Sept. 18, 4:15
- Open House, Thursday, Sept 18, Dinner at 5:00, visit classrooms at 6:00.
- NM Smiles will be at NVA on September 23 and 24 offering routine dental checkups to students who fill out the release.

Parents of 4th and 5th graders will be receiving their log-in information today for Powerschool. Learn how to log-in and check on student attendance, grades, assignments and other classroom information. We will keep you updated on all the NVA news right here in Thursday folder. You may also access the website at www.nvanm.org and your child's teacher has a website link and/or blog. The Thursday folder will be delivered to your email in-box beginning this Thursday, September 11, 2014. If this is something you are interested in, make sure you have turned in the updated contact info to the school.

If you have questions, concerns, ideas or kudos, please feel free to contact any of us.
